FOOTBALL MEMORABILIA AUCTION AT STACEYS

On behalf of both Roger and myself, may I welcome you to our first auction at a new venue on the sporting memorabilia map. As a customer of Stacey's, I have been impressed with their professional service, gained from over 65 year's of running and hosting auctions.

As many of you will appreciate, I previously owned two football auction companies, as well as a sports memorabilia shop. With this experience, my aim now is to complement the services that Stacey's provide and establish the first major sporting auction centre in Essex.

The facilities that Stacey's are able to provide include extensive and comfortable viewing areas, with glass cabinet displays and modern features include a 'buy it now' facility to allow unsold lots to be purchased, with an immediate commission bid left on Stacey's own website.

Our friends at Saleroom.com are always available, in the event you are unable to attend our auction and I sincerely hope you will be impressed with the professional packing and shipping distributors, who will ensure your packaged lots arrive swiftly and safely.

Please note, the lots in this auction are in secure storage. Accordingly, all condition reports will be answered on Saturday 9 and Sunday 10 February, immediately prior to the auction itself. This will allow you sufficient time to leave a commission bid, or book a telephone line – of which there are an impressive 8 landlines available.

I sincerely hope you will be impressed with the 950 lots on offer in this, our debut auction. The first 782 lots are from Roger's own private collection. Roger has been an avid collector of sporting memorabilia for the best part of fifteen years and has secured the items in this auction through various means. Many of the lots are appearing at public auction for the first time. Following nine months of lotting and with cracks appearing in his ceiling, Roger has assured me he will now be concentrating, solely on his Man Utd and Charlton Collections in future!

Lots from 803 onwards are the former property of newspaper, Soccer Star magazine and Boxing News magazine columnist, Maurice Weedon (1916-2005). Maurice was taken by his father to Upton Park in the 1920s and the collection, which is a credit to him, is here for you all to see.

Our next auction is scheduled for 29 July 2013 and will consist of further football, as well as cricket and boxing memorabilia, from both Roger and Maurice's private collections. I can confirm the boxing memorabilia, already consigned from the Maurice Weedon collection, is generating a lot of interest – especially the pre-war signed photos of all the big name boxers, who Maurice knew personally.

We welcome private and trade lots. However, please note trade lots will not exceed 10% of the auction and do not be offended if they are refused, once our quota is met.

Best wishes

Yours in sport

In completing the bidder registration on www.the-saleroom.com and providing your credit card details and unless alternative arrangements are agreed with us, you:

1. Authorise the auctioneers, to take full payment on the Saturday following the sale using the credit card details on file unless you contact us to arrange payment before then.
2. Confirm that you are authorised to provide these credit card details to Stacey's Auctioneers & Valuers through www.the-saleroom.com and agree that Stacey's Auctioneers & Valuers are entitled to ship the goods to the card holder name and card holder address provided in fulfillment of the sale.
